Guarantee of payment and direct payment

A+ International and its partners have a wide range of agreements with health care providers and facilities located all over the world. You may consult the list of providers on 'My A+ Page'.

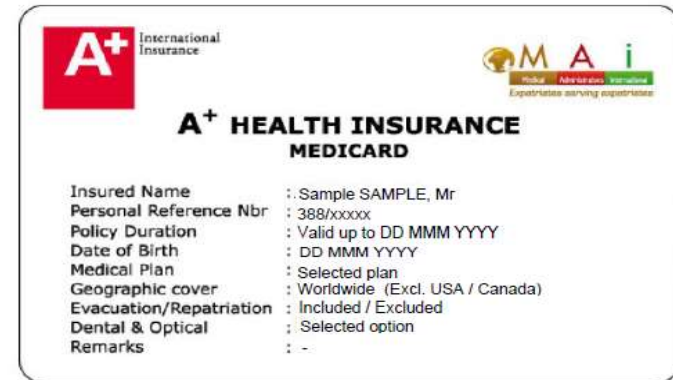

How does it work?

 Within 30 days after receiving a copy of the discharge report and the bill(s); conditions apply, slight differences possible in some cases*

What if it is an emergency admission?

In the event of an emergency admission, show the provider your Medicaid upon admission. Send the claims manager the completed Cost Estimate Form before release. The claims manager will deal directly with the medical provider.

GOLD PASS OUTPATIENT DIRECT BILLING PROCEDURE

Please present your Gold Pass and identification at admission counter to speed up proper registration.
You will be requested to sign a claim form presented to you by the medical provider to acknowledge the services rendered. Please check this carefully before signing and ensure that the treatments and services invoiced are those you have been provided for.
This form will be sent directly by the provider to the insurer.
Nothing else is required from you.

Please note that certain treatments are not allowed under direct billing process

Treatments allowed with Direct Payment

- Medical Consultations from General Practitioners or Specialists
- Imaging (e.g. Radiology)
- Laboratory, excluding preventive lab tests
- Prescribed medicines

Any other treatments must be first paid by the member and claimed subsequently the usual way.

For instance (but not limited to):

- Dental Care
- Optical Care
- Preventive care including: check-ups, vaccinations & preventive Lab tests
- Maternity Care including: pre-natal / post-natal consultations, check-ups & Lab tests (for client with co-insurance policy)
- Psychiatric Treatment
- Physiotherapy
- Chiropractor, Homeopath, Acupuncture, Osteopath
- Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM)
- Medical Aids (hearing aids, orthopedic appliances & stockings, artificial limbs, wheelchair)

In case of doubt please check with the claim manager.
